THE PRIME MINISTER

I would like to take this opportunity to pay tribute to the work of Co-operation Ireland.

For 30 years, Co-operation Ireland has effectively carried out its mission of promoting peace on the island of Ireland through practical co-operation between people in Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland.

Since the restoration of the Northern Ireland Executive and other institutions in May 2007, the way forward has been to build positive relationships at community level, through the promotion of mutual understanding and co-operation both within Northern Ireland and between Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland. Your work with groups from all religious and cultural communities has helped to build vibrant societies based on the principles of respect for diversity and peace and this reconciliation has helped to underpin political agreement on the island of Ireland.

I wish you continued success and offer my very best wishes for all the activities and fundraising events that you have planned for future months.
